Inspirational Humanitarian and Intellectual Expert, Dark Inspirational Conformist

We only do SolePath readings for those who give us permission, but are able to complete a SolePath when someone passes over and goes home. It is our privilege and honour to share with you the SolePath of Queen Elizabeth II.

Progression LightPath: Inspirational Humanitarian

As an Inspirational Humanitarian the greatest gift that you share with us is your desire to work for the greater good of all. You work tirelessly for the collective good, righting wrongs. You have a great depth of talent and courage and are a team player when working for a cause that meets your personal beliefs. You have a strong sense of duty and responsibility.

Core Energy for the Inspirational Humanitarian:
Fulfilling my Duty and Taking Action.

Being an Inspirational Humanitarian means finding a cause and then putting a great deal of effort and time into making a difference. You are an active doer who needs to be getting things done, not sitting around talking about what needs to be done.

Joyful LightPath: Intellectual Expert

As an Intellectual Expert you are a specialist. You acquire extensive knowledge that provides clarity and understanding to others. You are highly skilled and insightful in your field and work well alone. You like expert status and recognition, and why not, you have done the work, the study and the research.

Core Energy for the Intellectual Expert:

Desire to acquire Knowledge and Specialization in one or two fields.

Being an Intellectual Expert means that you thrive on having intimate knowledge of your chosen field of interest. You never skim the surface but rather spend your time researching and specializing in the one or two topics that captivate you. The image is of a pyramid or triangle above your head, distilling the ideas and thoughts that flow from your research and learning into a peak of specialization.

*DarkPath: Inspirational Conformist***

A little hard-hearted and lacking in emotion. A sense of entitlement, wanting to be obeyed. Intolerant of those who don't share your humanitarian desire to work for the greater good.
